The tournament will not be responsible to refund fees after acceptance if teams applied and later find out they are not permitted to participate due to rules of their governing organization.

The Registrar must have a copy of your roster prior to this request (it can be faxed to 717-898-2486). Approval will be granted when roster size indicates this is necessary and approval must be granted prior to Registration Night. If prior approval is not requested and granted, only 3 guests will be allowed on the team at registration.
- Secondary players are considered guest players. All players and guest players must present their primary pass and medical release form at registration. Please also check with your club registrar, USYSA state association, US Club Soccer, or SAY Soccer, etc. to determine if a form or notification is necessary to bring guest players to the tournament.
- Players with US Club Soccer player cards may not guest for a USYSA team, and players with USYSA player cards may not guest for a US Club Soccer team.
- Players may compete for only one team in the tournament.
